

Constructively critical so that the student learns from errors made and builds self-confidence in facing similar situations

"She (the teacher) always used constructive criticism when telling me where I went wrong and always provided methods for improvement" (BEd 1 Student)

"She (the teacher) outlined ways in which I could improve my teaching which was beneficial to my development as a teacher" (BEd 4 Student)