

Humourous by instilling in a student the importance of humour when establishing relationships with colleagues and pupils

"The teacher used humour throughout the day, creating a great rapport within the classroom with the children and consequently making me feel comfortable and relaxed" (BEd 2 Student)

"She (the teacher) was lively and chatty and had a great rapport and used humour with staff, children and parents. She also made it easy for me to settle in" (BEd 3 Student)
