

Patient by realising the student requires time to adjust to school experience

"If I was unsure about how to undertake something, she (the teacher) was patient and took time to explain it to me" (BEd 1 Student)

"If there were areas I felt I needed to go over, the class teacher was very patient and sympathetic towards my needs as well as the pupils" (BEd 2 Student)